

TRINITY BIBLE CHURCH

For Christ, to God's Glory,
and Man's Joy

October 11, 2020

Special Online Edition

Welcome to the Sunday worship service at trinitybiblechurch.org/live

We have the blessed privilege on this Lord's Day to make much of Christ through the reading, singing, and preaching of God's Word together.

*Oh come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the LORD, our Maker!
For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.*

— Psalm 95:6-7

Let Us Sing Songs of Praise

Oh come, let us sing to the LORD;

let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation!

Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving;

let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise!

For the LORD is a great God,

and a great King above all gods.

In his hand are the depths of the earth;

the heights of the mountains are his also.

The sea is his, for he made it,

and his hands formed the dry land.

Oh come, let us worship and bow down;

let us kneel before the LORD, our Maker!

For he is our God,

and we are the people of his pasture,

and the sheep of his hand.

1 Peter 2:24-25

He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

Sermon:

"Like the Son in Shepherding"

Matthew 18:10-14

The Good Shepherd is training His undershepherds. The preciousness of His every last lamb is His predominant concern in this lesson. Christ highlights how important His little ones are to God. God's children are precious to Him. To illustrate, Jesus presents a parable. It is about God's concern that none of His little ones be despised and lost. In the figures of sheep and shepherds He casts His church. His people are the sheep, but the lesson is learned in the service of the shepherd. While the central feature of the parable points to the responsibility of appointed leaders, the principle still stands for the church as a whole. For the sake of His name and His sheep, His disciples must be like the Son in shepherding.

Fighter Verse for the Week of October 11

Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.

All Praise to Him

All praise to Him, the God of light,
Who formed the mountains by His might.
All praise to Him who names the stars,
that sing His fame in skies afar.
All praise to Him who reigns in love,
Who guides the galaxies above,
yet bends to hear our every prayer,
with sovereign power and tender care.

All praise to Him Whose love is seen in Christ the Son, the servant King,
Who left behind His glorious throne
to pay the ransom for His own.
All praise to Him Who humbly came to bear our sorrow, sin, and shame,
Who lived to die, Who died to rise,
the all sufficient sacrifice.

All praise to Him whose power imparts
the love of God within our hearts.
The Spirit of all truth and peace,
the fount of joy and holiness.
To Father, Son, and Spirit now
our souls we lift, our wills we bow.
To You, the Triune God, we raise with loving hearts our song of praise.

Based on the hymn, "All Praise to Him Who Built the Hills" by Horatius Bonar (1808-1889). Music and additional words: Matt Merker & Bob Kauflin © 2017 Sovereign Grace Praise; UBP CCLI #249042

The Lord Is

The depths of Your grace who can measure.
You fully supply all I need.
You restore my weary soul again and again,
And lead me in Your righteousness and peace.

You're with me through every dark valley.
There's nothing that I have to fear.
You are there to comfort me again and again,
Protecting me, assuring me You're near.

The Lord is, the Lord is my Shepherd,
the Lord is, the Lord is my Shepherd,
I shall not want.

You gave Your own life for my ransom
So I could rejoice at Your side.
You have shown Your faithfulness
Again and again,
There's nothing good that You will not provide.

I will dwell
In Your house
All the days of my life.

Come, O Sinner

Come, O sinner, come and see
Christ the Lord upon a tree.
See the crown of thorns adorn the King
Who labors to breathe in agony.
Come, O sinner, come and see
What our God became to set us free.

Come, O sinner, come and mourn,
For He calls your sin His own.
Do you feel the weight of justice served?
He suffers the wrath that you deserve.
Come, O sinner, come and mourn
For He bears the curse for all you've done.

(Chorus)
Oh, the wonder
Of this awesome scene
Where our Savior bleeds.
Oh, the power
Of the love of God.
Come and stand in awe.

Come, O sinner, come rejoice.
Mercy fills this place of scorn.
For He dies to save His enemies,
That all who draw near may know His peace.
Come, O sinner, come rejoice,
Through the death of Christ,
Death is destroyed.

Grace Alone

I was an orphan, lost at the fall;
Running away when I'd hear You call,
But Father, You worked Your will.
I had no righteousness of my own;
I had no right to draw near Your throne,
But Father, You loved me still.

And in love, before You laid the world's foundation,
You predestined to adopt me as Your own.
You have raised me up so high above my station;
I'm a child of God by grace, and grace alone.

You left Your home to seek out the lost;
You knew the great and terrible cost
But Jesus, Your face was set.
I worked my fingers down to the bone;
But nothing I did could ever atone,
But Jesus, You paid my debt.

By Your blood I have redemption and salvation.
Lord You died that I might reap
what You have sown,
And you rose that I might be a new creation.
I am born again by grace, and grace alone.

I was in darkness all of my life,
I never knew the day from the night,
But Spirit, You made me see.
I swore I knew the way on my own;
Head full of rocks, a heart made of stone
But Spirit, You moved in me.

And at Your touch
my sleeping spirit was awakened;
On my darkened heart
the light of Christ has shone.
Called into a kingdom that cannot be shaken;
Heaven's citizen by grace, and grace alone.

So I'll stand in faith by grace, and grace alone
I will run the race by grace, and grace alone
I will slay my sin by grace, and grace alone
I will reach the end by grace, and grace alone

Yet Not I But Through Christ In Me

What gift of grace is Jesus my redeemer
There is no more for heaven now to give
He is my joy, my righteousness, and freedom
My steadfast love, my deep and boundless peace.
To this I hold, my hope is only Jesus
For my life is wholly bound to His.
Oh how strange and divine,
I can sing: all is mine!
Yet not I, but through Christ in me.

The night is dark but I am not forsaken
For by my side, the Savior He will stay.
I labor on in weakness and rejoicing
For in my need, His power is displayed
To this I hold, my Shepherd will defend me
Through the deepest valley He will lead
Oh the night has been won,
And I shall overcome!
Yet not I, but through Christ in me.

No fate I dread, I know I am forgiven
The future sure, the price it has been paid
For Jesus bled and suffered for my pardon
And He was raised to overthrow the grave
To this I hold, my sin has been defeated
Jesus now and ever is my plea
Oh the chains are released,
I can sing: I am free!
Yet not I, but through Christ in me.

With every breath I long to follow Jesus
For He has said that He will bring me home
And day by day I know He will renew me
Until I stand with joy before the throne
To this I hold, my hope is only Jesus
All the glory evermore to Him
When the race is complete,
Still my lips shall repeat:
Yet not I, but through Christ in me.

Ephesians 2:1-7

And you were dead in the trespasses and sins in which you once walked, following the course of this world, following the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work in the sons of disobedience—among whom we all once lived in the passions of our flesh, carrying out the desires of the body and the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, like the rest of mankind. But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved—and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus.

*The night is dark but I am not forsaken
For by my side, the Savior He will stay.
I labor on in weakness and rejoicing
For in my need, His power is displayed
To this I hold, my Shepherd will defend me
Through the deepest valley He will lead
Oh the night has been won,
And I shall overcome!
Yet not I, but through Christ in me.*

—“Yet Not I But Through Christ in Me”, verse 2

Shepherd's Reading:

Matthew 18:10-14

“See that you do not despise one of these little ones. For I tell you that in heaven their angels always see the face of my Father who is in heaven. What do you think? If a man has a hundred sheep, and one of them has gone astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains and go in search of the one that went astray? And if he finds it, truly, I say to you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that never went astray. So it is not the will of my Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.”

TRINITY BIBLE CHURCH STATUS UPDATES:

Trinity Bible Church is suspending our Sunday in-person services until further notice. Live streaming of Sunday School classes and Sunday morning services are all scheduled to continue. Updates will be posted as they become available on our website as well as communicated through email and social media (TBC Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter accounts).

Let us all remember that “for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose” (Romans 8:28). Let us continue in earnest and patient prayer, by the faith of a disciplining mind that centers on Christ (Philippians 4:6-8). We thank God for you and are praying for you all with the affection of Christ. May the Lord be pleased to restore our gathering together soon, for His glory and our joy.

If you have questions, concerns, or need prayer, please connect with one of our TBC Shepherds:
